

Membership of the Metamorphic Association

The Metamorphic Association is an Educational Charitable Trust whose aims are to promote awareness, understanding and use of the Metamorphic Technique®; to co-ordinate teaching and training in the Technique; to provide support to all members and to uphold standards and good practice, ensuring that the Technique is accurately represented and practised.

Membership of the Metamorphic Association is also an opportunity to be involved in a collective enquiry into the nature of transformation and supports the ongoing dissemination of Metamorphic Technique®.

The categories of membership are outlined below:

Associate Member

Who is it for?

People who have attended a Metamorphic Technique® workshop and wish to practise the Technique informally; this may include practising with family and friends, doing charitable work, and/or building up practical experience with a view to working towards Practitioner Membership.

What is expected of me?

You should have attended at least one workshop that is officially recognised as part of the training requirements of the Association.

What are the benefits?

- Listings of all members so that you can contact each other to 'network' - exchange sessions, share experiences, and organise local get-togethers if you wish
- Invitations to attend the Annual Gathering, Member Days and other Continuing Education Events
- Access to Newsletters, Publications and Member's Page on the Metamorphic Association's website

Practitioner Member

Who is it for?

It is for people who wish to be in a position to practise the Metamorphic Technique® in a professional relationship with the Public.

What is expected of me?

You should have attended at least two workshops that are officially recognised as part of the training requirements of the Association, with an appropriate period of practical experience between the two workshops.

While the degree of practical experience required is not fixed, as a guideline, the minimum expected would be to have received 20 sessions and to have given 50 sessions to at least 10 different people, (which can include family and friends) over a 6-12 month period.

Practitioner Members are encouraged to be actively giving and receiving sessions on an ongoing basis and in so doing are required to comply with the Association's Code of Practice and Professionalism & Ethics.

Not all Practitioners choose to work with the Public, however those who do offer sessions to the Public on a professional basis are required to participate in the Association's Continuing Education Programme on a yearly basis.

What are the benefits?

- Entry on the Metamorphic Association's official Register of Members on our website, so that clients can be referred to you and enquirers can contact you directly
- Access to a mutual support and professional development network for Practitioners
- Listings of all other members so that you can contact each other to exchange sessions, share experiences, and organise local get-togethers if you wish
- Access to Newsletters, Publications and Member's Page on the Association's website
- The legal and exclusive right to use the official Trademarked name 'Metamorphic Technique®' when working professionally with the general public

Once you have been a registered Practitioner Member for at least one year you can apply for attendance on the Practitioner Teacher Training course.

Practitioner Teacher Member

Who is it for?

Those who have been registered Practitioner Members for at least one year and who want to begin teaching recognised Introductory Metamorphic Technique® workshops for the general public.

What is expected of me?

To apply for Practitioner Teacher Membership you should have attended a Practitioner Teacher Training Course and one of the required Continuing Education Seminars for Teachers.

Practitioner Teachers are encouraged to be actively giving and receiving sessions on an ongoing basis and in so doing are required to comply with the Association's Code of Practice and Professionalism & Ethics.

What are the benefits?
